IN THE BEGINNING

Because Pres. CHARLIE had not returned from the District, BILL PETHICK presided over the meeting. JOE BEST led gave the invocation, while NELS led the pledge.

Bill presiding

GUESTS

There were none.

SUNSHINE REPORT

No report today.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

BOB SMITH and WALLY discussed the upcoming golf tournament. They said we still need lots of players and lots of prizes.

NELS invited Penfield Rotarians to the War Memorial near the Penfield Amphitheater on Memorial Day for the laying of roses.

BILL PETHICK updated everyone that there were no Penfield Rotarians who won the LPGGA putting contest.

BOB SMITH announced that he birdied a Par 5 at Victor Hills

HAPPY DOLLARS

MARIE CINTI- tossed in $1 for the School Budget passing and another $1 for Mighty Taco coming to Rochester

WODJOHOWSKI- $1 for her daughter who was confirmed this weekend

MICHELE STOKES, IVETH REYNOLDS, ZAC, BOB SMITH each gave $1 for the sunny weather

JOHN TURNER- gave $5 because he was happy that he has a grandson that received his Master's Degree in Architecture

BOB GENTLE- is happy that when he wakes up he sees the grass from the top down instead of the bottom up. That was worth $1.

CHRISTIAN PAPPAS took first place playing poker in his brother's office league and had $3 to show for it.

NELS CARMEN- gave $1 for Los Amigos opening up so he can enjoy his Dos Equis Dark Lager.

PROGRAM

PENFIELD TOWN LIBRARY

Bernadette Brinkman, the director of the library

Director Bernadette Brinkman

spoke about all services that Penfield Library offers the residents of Penfield and Monroe County through the library network.

Marion Spencer- Director of Outreach Services runs the book extension program bringing books to senior citizens in Penfield.

Judy Carpenter is director of Children's literature and runs the summer reading game which gives incentives to kids for meeting reading goals. This program helps kids retain the knowledge that they learned over the summer.

Lyla Grills runs the young adult library for kids grades 6-12. Teens use the library to read, socialize, do homework and listen to educational programs.

Bernadette Brinkman also told the group that Lyla was instrumental in bringing the author Linda Sue Park to Penfield Library to talk about her book "A Long Walk to Water" which tells of Penfield Rotarian SALVA DUT's story.

After the presentation, director Bernadette Brinkman, led a tour of the facility.

50/50 RAFFLE

MARY ANN chose the ten of clubs. It was not
