THE BEGINNING – STEVE KETCH greeted an abundance of guests this week (see below). DON MILTON led the Pledge, and BOB SMITH did the invocation. STEVE KETCH did double-duty as reporter.

LINDA KOHL started off by presenting the club with our Penfield Bicentennial Banner, which hung proudly at Four Corners for the past year and provided great advertising for our club.

VISITORS: Josh Turner from Princeton, NJ, son of JOHN TURNER, paid a visit. Speaker Tracey Dreisbach was visiting from the Rochester Rotary Club. MARIE CINTI brought her son Daniel along for a visit. Donna Caito and her Daughter Alyson were there for Alyson to receive her scholarship award. JACK WETZEL's wife Carol also graced us with her presence.

SUNSHINE REPORT – BOB SMITH reported that CRAIG SMITH has been dealing with foot problems, which is why he has missed recent meetings. Josh Turner reported that his father JOHN TURNER is doing well considering the circumstances. He is not in pain, and is at home with family and friends. Carol Wetzel's mother Norma Wurtenberg passed away peacefully at the age of 101 last weekend.

ANNOUNCEMENTS – CHARLIE BELLOMO reminded everyone that our picnic will be next Tuesday, 5:30 p.m. at the Dolomite Lodge. Everyone is encouraged to come and bring your family. If you are planning to attend, please notify Charlie so we have enough food and beverages.

There will be no meeting on August 9. Instead, Penfield Rotary members are asked to attend the meetings of other clubs in the area that week. This is an opportunity to see how other clubs do things, and maybe bring back some ideas we could use to improve our club. JACK BEST distributed copies of the PenWheel listing times of club meetings, and providing an evaluation form for them.

August 9 is Haccamo Day for our club. Volunteers from our club and other clubs in the county will be spending time at the camp, helping out the counselors and interacting with the campers. A signup sheet will be passed around at the next couple of meetings. If you are available, please sign up for one of the three time slots on that day. You can also sign up for the carnival on August 11th or the Prom on August 25th. CHARLIE BELLOMO let everyone know that they can swim with the kids if they bring swimsuits. That might be a really good idea if it stays as hot as it has been!

JACK BEST announced that he and his wife are hosting a student from Africa this week. Penfield Rotarians are invited to come to the Bests for dessert on Friday, July 22nd to meet the student.

JACK WETZEL introduced Penfield High School class of 2011 student Alyson Caito to the club and presented her with a $1000 check for being the winner of the Penfield Rotary Scholarship for 2011. Alyson will be attending the University of Pittsburgh in the Fall.

BILL PETHICK noted that there is a registration sheet on the table each week for keeping track of attendance at other clubs. Also, there will be a polio donation box at the table for the next few weeks.

PROGRAM – DON MILTON introduced Tracey Dreisbach. Tracey is executive director of the Rochester Rotary club and Sunshine Camp. Tracey gave the club an overview of Sunshine Camp. Sunshine Camp works in partnership with numerous other organizations to provide camping opportunities for different groups throughout the summer. Some of the groups include the Muscular Dystrophy Association, Diabetes Association, Heritage Christian Services, and of course Haccamo. Sunshine Camp provides facilities, program staff, food, and maintenance. Their partners provide campers and counselors, and get to choose their programs and food.

Sunshine Camp has a lot of great facilities, including a climbing wall and 300-foot zip line, pool, splash park, and of course the train (brought over from Haccamoo). Everything is fully accessible – even the climbing wall and zip line.

One of the great things about the partnerships that Sunshine Camp has with other organizations is that they are able to learn from one another. For example, the Rochester Rotary Club learned about the idea of a volunteer day from Camp Haccamo. Everyone is encouraged to attend.

RAFFLE – WALLY ASHNAULT won $13 but pulled the 9 of spades – the big pot moves on to next week.
