Euchre Tournament meeting to be determined.

Happy Dollars:

CHRISTIAN PAPPAS $1- Happy that President Charlie not only rang the bell at Tops for 3 straight hours but he also set up the Christmas party.

MARY ANN MADY- $2 for all the condolences she received after the death of her sister and the fact that there is less Genesee beer in her house.

CHRIS KAUSCH- $2 happy that his son had a very safe trip home from Germany for the holidays.

MARY WOJNOWSKI- $2- Happy that Christmas was over and very successful.

DON MILTON- $2 Happy that his daughter's friend is home from the army before he heads out to his 4th tour in Afghanistan.

JACK WETZEL- $2 happy that he was able to talk to all of his kids on Christmas.

BILL PETHICK- $2 happy that his church choir was recorded and will be broadcast on WXXI.

JACK BEST- $2 had a great Christmas despite the broken foot, with MARY ANN MADY's advice to have a positive attitude.

JOE BEST- $2 Happy that his Uncle was in town and for an awesome Bills win.

MIKE DONNELLY- $5: December 29 will mark 8 years from when he began treatment and research on his pancreatic cancer.

Program:

Liz Richardson spoke about how The Legacy at Willow Pond serves the Penfield community. About 90% of their residents are from Penfield. The Legacy really enjoyed hosting our Euchre tournament, with The Legacy enjoying great exposure within the community.

Liz spoke about how The Legacy has a bed and breakfast opportunity for people to use for up to 3 months without a lease. She offered to give a tour of the rooms and the building at the meeting's end.

JACK WETZEL won the raffle for a free night and breakfast in The Legacy's bed and breakfast suite.
